After spending a week this past spring sightseeing Michigan with the Ladd clan Erica returned with warm memories. As future in-laws of Stephen, we are most grateful for Larry and Marsha's parenting efforts. Our daughter, Erica, will reap the blessings of a grounded Christian husband. Thank you, Marsha.

Marsh was an amazingly kind woman with a ready smile. I was lucky enough to call her family. You are all in my thoughts and more importantly, my prayers, as you go through this time of grief. John 14:1-6 comforted me immensely when both Uncle Ed and Aunt Betty went home to be with their Lord. I hope you find comfort in it too, knowing that Marsha is at home with her Saviour!
Love,
Missy
