Comments

“ Dorothy was not just an excellent secretary for the Dean of the School of Public Health, but she was a good friend to all who worked with her. She made herself available to faculty and students, who often asked her for help. Deeply committed to the School, she was a caring, intelligent woman, loved by all who knew her.

“ Dorothy and I started at the U of M at the same time and have remained friends all these years. She was a bridesmaid at our wedding. So sorry she had to live with this terrible disease all these years, at least, now she will be with Jule.

“ I have many fond memories of Dorothy & Jule, lived next to them. Always had a treat for my daughters when they were little. I'm sorry of her passing.
