“ I know it has taken some time for me to write something...but even the thought of losing Eric is unimaginable. I still have some of the best memories growing up with Eric. My mind is still refusing to believe he is gone, but my heart longs to see him just one last time. I regret not being able to see him when I had the chances to... Eric you are and forever will be more than a cousin to me; you were one of my best friends growing up and you have always been a brother to me. To Aunt Colleen, Uncle Chuck, Taylor, and Will....I am deeply crushed that you have to go through with this, just know you are not alone and I love you with all my heart. Eric will never be forgotten and will always live on with the memories that we cherish of him.

“ Eric was one of the brightest and most enjoyable people I've ever been around. It saddens me we could not spend more time together. He was taken from us far before his time and I know someday we will see each other again. I miss you my brother. Nothing but love.

“ To: Chuck, Colleen, Taylor and Will

Eric was one of my favorite people when he played for the Saline Yellow Jackets. A great athlete who was fun to watch, and had a great sense of humor. I remember I nicknamed him "relay man" once when we were playing catch together before a game.

This is so sad. I am sorry for your loss.

My best,

Paul Pazkowski

“ Chuck, Colleen, Taylor and Will,

We feel your sorrow and hope that you know we are here for you.
Eric was a great young man and was taken too soon.
We will miss him in our family very much.

Will all our love,

“ Chuck, Colleen and family....We've known you for a short while and never had the opportunity to meet Eric. Our hearts ache and we are sending many prayers for our Lord to put his healing arms around you and ease you through this sudden passing of your son. Keep the memory and name of Eric alive. He is now in a special place and may that be of comfort to you all.

Fondly,

“ We didn't know Eric personally, but know his parents and grandparents. We cannot imagine the loss that you feel, our hearts ache for you. Please accept our deepest sympathy and know that you are all in our prayers.

In difficult times we think of this song: "Be not afraid, I go before you always, come follow me and I will give you rest."

“ I didn't know Eric as an adult, but I knew and remembered him as the little boy who colored in his coloring book so nicely, neatly, and perfectly within the lines!

Colleen, Chuck, Taylor, and Will, we wish we could be there to support you during this time of great sorrow. Just know that although we are not physically there with you, we are grieving with you and feel your tremendous pain. I can only hope that Eric's suffering has ceased and he has found peace, beauty, and contentment in a better place beyond. May our thoughts and prayers are with you always.

“ I don't even know where to begin. My heart still refuses to believe the truth of Eric's passing. I deeply regret that I have not seen him in some time, but I have so many fond memories of him from the time that we have spent together. Even now I can see him, as a child, running around and playing tag and hide-and-seek in our grandparents' yard with me and Justin. I remember every holiday, every birthday, every school vacation that we spent together... I remember how happy, compassionate, caring, and full of life he always was. I can see his smile like it was yesterday... This is what I choose to remember, and I will forever honor his memory by keeping these thoughts and images closer to my heart than every before. Eric may not be physically with us anymore, but he will never be gone from our hearts. His memory will never be forgotten.

To Aunt Colleen, Uncle Chuck, Taylor and Will -- please know that we love you and are praying for you always... although it will take time for the pain to pass, stay strong and have faith in the Lord and he will help to ease your suffering....

"God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging."

Psalm 46:1-3

With love always,

“ We have lost Eric long before it was his time. The memories of him will be an infallible constellation of everything good he brought to our lives and our love for Eric will live in our hearts forever.

Colleen, Chuck, Taylor and Will...remember that God is with you always, even in these times of despair...

“Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand ... For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, “Fear not, I am the one who helps you.”

“ Eric will forever live in our hearts and the joy-filled memories of him will fill our thoughts for the remainder of our days until we are joined together again. They that love beyond the world cannot be separated by it. Death cannot kill what never dies....

Colleen, Chuck, Taylor and Will...remember that God is there with you...

"Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand ... For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, “Fear not, I am the one who helps you.”

“ Words cannot express the loss of Eric, as we've grown with him through all his years. The sorrow will take time to pass, but will really never leave us or his parents and brothers. We saw his first steps in life, and can't believe he will no longer be with us. It leaves a hole in our hearts that can never be filled. We will love you Eric, till the end of time!
