Garrick our beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew and friend. Although, we have lost a part of what makes our hearts whole with his passing, he will live on in our memories and through those whose lives he touched. His comedic and sometimes off-color personality will permeate our thoughts forever. (And he wouldn't have it any other way!) Dearest Garrick, We will miss and cry and laugh for you every day. We promise to stay strong in order to honor your life and your memory. We are so proud of you in the relentless effort you put into accomplishing your dream of running track for the University of Michigan. Now, sadly it is time to stop running and be at peace. Please know son, that you have forever touched all those around you and that your brothers and sisters from the Saline Track Team will carry your spirit with them each day. And hold in your heart the knowledge that your siblings who were fortunate to have you as their big bother, protector and confidant, will stay strong and live as I know you would want, without regret. We love you my baby and you will always be my "little buddy" Until we can hold you again, Mommy & Daddy. “ I met Garrick while volunteering at a high school track meet and was immediately taken by his friendliness and leadership. The following week, while volunteering at a middle school meet, I again ran into Garrick, sharing his talents with members of the MS team. Two weeks ago I was talking to one of the middle school coaches who also said that Garrick was one of those rare people that was able to inspire so many. My thoughts and prayers go out to you.

“ My family and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your love one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. I found words of encouragement from God's word the Bible. The Bible speaks of death being an enemy that God never intended mankind to experience. In Isaiah 25:8, God promises that in the future he will actually swallow up death forever. You can put all your trust in God's promises. You and your family are in my prayers.
