“ Aunt Inez was one of a kind. This past Valentines day, I sent her a singing card. She said she had been having a bad day but came home and the card made her smile and boosted her mood. She also said it was the first singing card she had ever received. I am so glad she enjoyed it as much as I enjoyed the stories she sent me via email. Bye Aunt Inez, I know you are with all your loved ones that have gone before you. RIP
Love Cindy

“ Inez was a wonderful friend to my whole family. She saved my brother's life when she actually pried a double wide trailer off of him, pulled him out from under, got him to the hospital and stayed by his side until he recovered. She was a lovely, caring person. I don't think I ever heard her say anything critical of anyone. Inez was one of a kind. She will be missed by everyone who had the opportunity of knowing her. She was my hero.
