“ Rich, Sherry and family....

Once again, the Lord led me to you, in a time of sorrow...I think of you so often, and I am praying for your whole family in this time of loss. I am grateful because I know you have faith, and that you know the Lord. He is good, and mighty and awesome. I trust that He took Jim in His arms and he is at peace, whole healed and well. I pray for his children and family for peace and comfort. It is now that the magnitude of their loss becomes very real, weeks after the passing.

This morning I am grieving the loss my 54 year old brother, Mike, who passed away last night, and understand deeply the pain and sorrow...I literally found out about Jim's passing this morning as I spoke with my sister. Shar Pastewski's sister, who is also 54 died suddenly in February, and I realized then Jim, and now Mike, also 54 are gone. I want you to know that no matter what, I love you guys and always will. Please know that, and forgive me for however I let you down as a friend. Love covers a multitude of sins and I pray that you are covered in the grace of God now. Know that I will be praying...

Victoria and Ben are BEAUTIFUL and I so are you Sherry...Rich, I pray that you are finding peace and comfort in your memories with your brother, you two are precious together, and all life is made in the little moments, we all have sun an shadow and at the end, all we remember is how we love one another...I will love you all forever, God Bless you all...

“ Dear Rich and family, I was shocked and I am saddened for your loss, I rememder Jim as your big brother and the coolest guy on the street, I always compared him to Greg Brady of the Brady Bunch, He was way too young for this, My thoughts will be with you and your family, I hope to see you one day soon. “ Jim was one-of-a-kind, there will never be anyone like him. He loved his family with everything he had and his children were always the first and most important thing in his life. I know everyone who knew him will miss him always and we are blessed to have so many memories of him to keep him alive in our hearts and minds forever. Now he is at peace and those left behind should honor his life by having the family he always wanted so much.

Sharon Lewis - March 08, 2013 at 05:48 AM

“ I agree Sharon. Jim's children meant the world to him and we will honor his memory by doing our best to keep the family close, as Aunt and Uncle to his 6 precious children.

“ May peace and comfort come to James' family as they begin to cope with this untimely passing. I have known James' son Jim for probably 12 or 13 years. Jim is a strong and intelligent young man; I know that his strength will provide his siblings and other family members with the support they need during this tough time. I know the sudden loss of a parent, so I am able to understand the pain that comes with this. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Hang in there.

“ Jim's passing leaves a void that can never be replaced or filled, only accepted through faith and kept alive in our hearts through memories.

“ What a shocking loss. Our thoughts go out to Jim's children and family. Jim was a big part of my young adult years. Ice skating on the creek behind our homes, serving as an "Eisenhower Timett" - to double dating and how could we ever forget winter carnival at Tech. Because of Jim's encouragement my husband of 32 years asked me on our first date. Jim also brought Betty into our lives. We as couples shared many wonderful times. The memories of Jim will always bring a smile - We pray that his family will also carry with them their special memories of a special guy.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this note. It is always very difficult to lose a loved one especially a brother. My heart goes out to all his lovely children and his beloved brother Richard, his sister Kate and his father James senior. I pray that his children will find peace in the good memories they all shared. I am so sorry I can not attend the Mass in his honor. “ I've known Jim or "Jimmer" as Rich and his parents liked to refer to him as, for over 32 years as his sister-in-law and eventually "Aunt Sherry" to his 6 perfectly wonderful children, who made him one of the proudest parents ever. Rich and I had lots of laughs and fun times with Jimmer through the years, yet we still wished for more so we could be around the guy Rich loved and looked up to as his older brother. Jim's life could be read like a good book including lots of beautiful people coming and going, great jobs, riveting situations, and travel abroad as he went from his humble beginnings as the middle child of a sweet family in Shelby Twp. to college and then once married, to places abroad with his family, and then back the states and Saline which came to be known as his home. Jim was a good man and did his best to handle obstacles in life. All who knew and loved him, especially his children and family, will cherish all the wonderful times and hold those memories close at heart, forever. You'll be sorely missed my dear brother-in-law "Jimmer", as we loved and respected each other more than we ever admitted. We pray you RIP dear James H. Wiegand, II - in our Lord's Heavenly Kingdom and we ALL shall meet again!
