“ Saddened to learn of Maxine's passing and my heart goes out to Jim and the rest of the Bowker family. I couldn't have chosen better neighbors or asked for more supportive friends. So sorry to watch Maxine and Matthew become prisoners of the same disease.

“ Use to love when Aunt Maxine and Uncle James would come home to Dickson, TN to visit with family. All the aunts would gather and drink their coffee and share memories of their wonderful past. I would hear how "perfect" the Halls were and are. ha ha That was their little joke, but somehow I always thought it had some truth to it.

My mother, Maurine, especially loved for her sister to come home. She would almost be giddy thinking about sharing stories and secrets with "her" sisters. And how many times would I hear how when growing up, everyone thought she and Maxine were twins, because their mother would dress them alike. Don't forget how Maxine and James and Maurine and Jessie ran off to get married; then came home to wake up the girls' parents to tell them what they had done by pulling on granny's big toe. ha ha ha

The most important thing I remember about Aunt Maxine is that she valued family. She loved her children and would always brag on them. Then when grandchildren started coming, tons of pictures would be shared at all the gatherings. Special memories of this wonderful lady will always be close to my heart. Now she is with two of her brothers and her sister, along with other precious family members. May God watch after all of them.
