“ I was seven when Mike was born and very proud to be such a young aunt. Until I was old enough to babysit him and Sandra, I helped my mother (Mike's grandmother) take care of him. He was such a cute little boy. They had a parakeet, Sammy, when Mike was very young. Mike would put a jingle bell in his mouth and Sammy would poke his head in to get it. Sammy also liked to perch on top of Mike's head. Unfortunately, one day Mike walked out of the house with Sammy on his head and the bird flew away and wouldn't come back. Of course, everyone knows how much Mike loved sports. When he was young, he liked to play with the family poodle, pretending he was both a hockey player and an announcer at the same time, using a tennis ball instead of a puck. "ESPOSITO SCORES!!!" Bark, bark. He was very proud of the Florida fruit and vegetable business and loved to talk about it. His eyes would light up as he spoke of the huge, delicious strawberries he sold to businesses that dipped them in chocolate. I'm sorry I never made it to Florida to taste them. Mike will be missed. “ He was a beloved softball coach and friend. I will always appreciate his toughness and great laugh. I had the privilege of being on his team for 4 years (1986-90) and even enjoyed seeing him on the field at Michigan games later in life. So very sorry for your loss.

Love,
