“ *My best memories of my “little “ cousin are from our childhood. He was the cutest, sweetest ever. His sisters and I would tease him, but he always got the best of us. We were so proud when he joined the army and it was always hard to believe he grew into this handsome man, so full of life and full of laughter. He was a loving nephew to my mother, Tillie, coming to visit her in her home and then later at the care home. He brought joy to her as well as me. I loved him and I will miss him. “ I had the honor as a certified hospice aide, to help Bob for a short time, on his journey to Heaven. "EXTRAORDINARY" is the best way for me to describe him. We had some things in common and he made me feel like we were lifetime friends. I will forever remember his sharp mind, his honesty, and the profound love he had for his family. I thanked him for his service to our country; and he deserved it because he loved our country. I didn't know him long, but I miss him. May he be at peace now and celebrating with his twin brother, his parents, and all those who went before him.
