“ I will always remember Russ as a quiet, gentle, and dedicated family man. I have missed sitting on a bench in Meijer's catching up on the gossip while Sandy shopped. I feel Blessed to have known him and pray for his family during this time.

“ Sandy, I learned of Russ's passing today and it saddens me. I have fond memories of both you and Russ. I'll never forget the time Russ and I paddled down the Raisin River in a Duck boat.

Where lives pass, memories carry on forever.

Thoughts and prayer are with you and the boys.

“ Sandy, and family,
Seems like yesterday, I enjoyed working with Russ at YRPH. He was one of the nicest people I have ever known. He treated patients with respect, kindness, and attentive care. I never saw him in foul temper -- he was generous w/smiles. I have to admit to "husband envy"... I have had 3...obvious--they were nothing like Russ. His passing brings a tear to my eye, even tho- I hadn't seen him much since Ypsi...enjoyed seeing you at Saline hospital gatherings and was happy to have known you both. Glad to see you have the blessing of children, you and Russ go forth in them-- the planet needs more people like the Whites. (Hope I see you on "the other side,"--I am almost 76). Dianne Devens
