“ Our hearts and prayers go out to Alice's family. Alice was always the life of the party. Her contagious laugh will be missed. She was not our aunt, but we always referred to her as Aunt Alice. I know she is now dancing in the heavens with Rollie.

“ Alice created so many happy memories for us. One of my first memories was collecting eggs from the chickens and learning about glass eggs. I also remember mom helping Alice butcher a lot of chickens, although I never understood at the time what that was all about.

Whether it was a reunion at the farm, or any other gathering, I remember her smile and relentless positive attitude about life. Her amazing fortitude and love for people will always be an important part of me and will inspire me the rest of my life.

We will miss you, Alice, and we will always have you with us.

“ Alice and my mother (Wilma Camburn) shared a room at the Saline Hospital when Richard and I were born. They laughed and giggled (not too hard imagining Alice and my mother laughing and giggling) so much that Bert Derendinger (he would have been 75 at the time) who was in an adjoining room complained about the noise. Evidently he didn't understand why having babies was so funny. All my thoughts to my old friends Richard, Alberta and Barb. Keith Camburn, Gastonia, North Carolina

“ Rich and family - your mom was one of my cornerstones at Leutheusers. I broke out in a big smile when I saw her picture here because that is exactly how I remember her, always laughing and enjoying a good joke. Bless her long and fun-filled life and the joy she brought to you and others. She will be missed. Mary Hunt

“ Barb, Bert, and Rich,
Your mom's pleasant disposition was nothing short of contagious, and she always put a smile on my face.

Rich,
W'll always remember "Moms' Day" in the Joe-Rich Bowling League. It was a fun outing for all four of us.

Of course, whenever playing scrabble, I think of your mom. She may be surprised to find that heavenly scrabble only features opponents who are as honest as the day is long.

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.
