“ I am so sorry to discover Annella’s passing so late. Her father, Nelson Brumm drove me to school part of the way when as a Quadriplegic with Cerebral Palsy of about 3 or 4 I lived in Nashville but attended Special Ed at Walnut Street School in Lansing (Gene often rode along with us). As a little boy, Annella was very kind to me, and she was one the sweetest humans God created. Prayers & love to the family.

Annella and Jim were great friends of my mother, Betty Washburn. I first met Annella at the First Methodist Church where she and my mom sat near the front. I'm sure Betty and Annella are enjoying memories in heaven.
