“ While Art was still working he helped me in the office on several occasions, he was always fun to talk with and made me smile. I enjoyed chatting with him when he called the office. He was indeed a perfect gentleman.

*My heart felt sorrow, and prayers for Gloria, Stacie, and Braden.

“ I havent seen my uncle Artie in so long but i remember the cold and early morning breakfast before going out hunting. I so looked up to him he was so fun and didn't care what others thought, he was an individual. Now he is in heaven talking about all them hunting days with my dad Duane. So here is a shout out to the old hunting buddies may the deer be plentiful and always in a bullets reach. I love u both and miss u so much. Love u and keep an eye on me.

Yes that's Arthur or Art as he was known to me. We served together in Vietnam, he was a good friend of mine. I am so sad to here of his passing.

A better person I never met.

Thanks for posting the photo.
