“ *Kathy, Luanne and Kevin,
So very sorry to read of the loss of your mother. When my girls were little I always took them by at Halloween to see her, and let them know she was one of the only original owners in our subdivision. I will miss seeing her outside in the spring.
Bless you all during this difficult time.*

“ Mrs. Latocki was our neighbor down the street for nearly 30 years. Our little girls loved to see the outfit on the goose on the front porch changing. One of the first times we met was when one of my little boys had headed out on an “adventure” and would’ve ended up on Saline-Milan Rd. had Barb not seen him and distracted him from his “adventure” until the frantic mother (me) arrived. When my boys entered the world of snow removal business (3 little boys with shovels and a mom 😊) they would take care of the “nuisance” snow accumulations (what Barb called an inch or less, anything not worthy of calling her regular snow removers) and come all smiles home waving their dollar tips and their cheeks bulging with a cookie. I always loved talking flowers with Barb and we’d share our mutual uncertainty of whether annuals or perennials were the way to go and we always looked forward to the creative costumes of her grandkids at Halloween. Such sweet memories of a dear neighbor. Our deepest condolences to her family. May the Lord hold you closely as you walk through this season of loss. Sincerely Kevin and Emily Richardson

“ Dear family,

I am so sorry that Paul and I will not be able to be with you when you take time to share and remember all your fond memories of Barb. I will always remember her as a gentle person with a great smile. She certainly cherished life, family, home and gardens. As much as she hated to leave all of you, she had many family members waiting to welcome her to her new life. I can just imagine what an exciting moment that was for her to see them all again!! Now, she will be waiting to greet each one of you with that same excitement!! God bless all of you for the love and care that you gave her. We will join you in prayer at 11 a.m., Monday morning. Sincerely, Judy W.
