“ Barth will be missed in our family and by his dogs. I'll always remember how I always wanted to ride in his scary van and how he always let me comb his dogs for hours on end. I especially enjoyed him making fun of my dad. That was great. Barth was loved and will be missed.

Barth was a good man with a big heart. He would do anything for his family. He spoiled his dogs, nephews, and nieces - all whom he loved dearly. Barth will always have a special place in my heart.

I remember pitching tennis balls for hours against the wall of his garage/man cave in Westlake when I was young, and he would make funny sarcastic comments about how I never ran out of energy. Whitehill family banter will really feel the loss of his biting sarcasm. Barth was a wonderful uncle with a big heart and I'll miss him.
