“ On this Good Friday, I am taking time to remember Betty and her life, her ministry, and her family, with gratitude. I was her pastor for three short years back in 75-78, but I remember her with affection. I don't know what we would have done without her in church, as she was always there and gave of her talents on the piano and organ with great unselfishness and dedication. She loved the Lord, and always had kind words for others. Her two youngest, Lynne and Betsy, helped anchor the church youth group during those years, and were delightful to be around. Although God called Jule and me to go to Africa in 1978, Betty was one of those people that I always remembered fondly.
