“ Chuck, I am so sorry for your loss. I met your mom once when she and Ed came over to my house and bought a piece of antique furniture. This was in the winter of 1990/1991. I was so surprised to see your dad, as he was my instructor for body shop class at Washtenaw Community College! He was a great teacher and I think of him often, and still use lessons that he taught me. Sorry to see that they both have passed.

I also worked with Ed's brother, Elmer, at Town and Country Ford, along with his son, Bill. All where fabulous people to know and work with. Miss them all.

“ She was a great neighbor, so easy to talk to. The best part we could talk about our faith. It is so comforting to know she is in heaven and NO pain. Vivian Hoeft
