“ Brian was a fixture at our house growing up. Everyone in our family knew Brian and loved him. My little brother's best friend growing up, I remember Brian to be a sweet kid, so funny and silly, he would crack us up with his jokes and expressions. He and my brother, Jimmy, would spend hours taking apart computers and playing games in the basement, both “computer geeks” at heart, they were two peas in a pod in that respect. We were all heartbroken to learn of his passing. He holds a special place in the Pfaendtner family, and we will always remember him. My deepest condolences to his parents, siblings, and especially his children and wife.
