“ I'm going to miss Tom terribly. He was my Devil Dog and we always had a good laugh reminiscing about the Corps. He has been like a second father to me and was just as proud as my dad, standing in the bleachers, clapping and cheering as I marched across that parade deck to claim the title Marine. I'll never forget that as long as I live. But, that still pales in comparison to my favorite memory of him. He pinned me Corporal when I earned my meritorious promotion. I couldn't have been happier to have him in my life; he knew what I would face when I deployed and he understood the adjustment it would take when I got back home. I'd tell him what's going on and say, "Violence might not be the answer, but it sure as hell gets your point across." And he'd just laugh and say, "yeah" then give me that look like, "You better stay out of trouble!" haha. I love you, Devil. You will always have a special place in my heart; you and Emily both.
