“ The loss of such a lovely lady as Carolyn is a heavy load on many hearts. Remember God promised to wipe our every tear and do away with such pain and suffering (Revelation 21:4). May that hope sustain you until you see her again (John 5:28, 29). My condolences.

“ I haven't see Carolyn in ten years but the year or so that I worked with her at Interfirst was so fun and memorable, and we became fast friends. She went over the top to decorate her cubicle for haloween, I enjoyed her upside down pinapple cake. We laughed a lot. Once we had petty fight, than went to Red Robin for a burger and saw Sweet Home Alabama... She also helped me get my next job. I can't believe she is gone. I hate you cancer for taking my friend away.

Rest in peace dear beautiful soul.

“ I miss Carolyn so much already. She was a great friend. She had an infectious laugh & we just had so much fun being goofy together. She had tremendous faith & loved her family with all her heart. I am so happy she found true love with a man she adored. You left us too soon "Sutter Butter" but I know you're at peace now enjoying the loving company of your mom & dad! Rest in piece my dear friend.
