“ *She was sweet beautiful and persistent
Her heart was made of gold.
She loved her country living
That brought her vegetables, chickens, and eggs
Until she became old.*

*She loved her husband, her children, and all things
That she could not let go;
Everything was important
She cherished the vintage
Hung on to all of it
Until she became old.*

*She loved her cookbooks, Bible and TV Evangelists.
Loved making pies and cakes, all was told.
She cared and worried about other
Until she became old.*

*I loved her for all she stood for - she had her own style –
It was her story and she stuck to it – until The End.*

*She will continue to live in all of our hearts...
Condolences from me, Carol Santure and my grandchildren,
Carissa, Nathan and Christopher Tunis.*
