“ I am blessed to have known Bob through Mary. I miss being able to hug him. He mostly talked to me in Greek, which I don't speak, but with Mary's help it was always a good conversation. Rest well, Papou.

“ How it brightened my day to walk into Regency, having "Papa" wave me down the hall. He would squeeze my hand and give me as many winks as he could. He ALWAYS made my day better. What a blessing and honor to care for this very special person and his family. I will miss our days of diving from the cliffs and planning meals afterwards. (of course, this was just inside our minds, and in our hearts forever now). Thank you for sharing this wonderful man with us. Trina, Your ever caring nurse
