“ When I worked at Busch's in Saline, I use to see Charlie every single day! He would always make me late from lunch because he was a talker! He was a super nice guy with a big heart. Rest in Peace, Buddy!!!!

“ We would see Charlie riding his bike past our home across from Wilderness Park nearly everyday no matter how cold or hot the weather for the past 22 years. We will miss seeing him. It won't be the same on Saline Milan Rd.

“ I met Charlie because I live near Wilderness Park and he traveled through the Park on his way to Saline. Charlie would often talk to me sharing his thoughts on life and sometime his troubles. He was one of the most interesting people in Saline and I miss seeing him on his bike, taking time to say "hi Bob" as he drove by.

“ I live on Charlie's bike route near Wilderness Park, and saw him stop there often to use the portable restroom, drop off his refuse, or just sit on a picnic table and smoke his cigarillos. He stopped at my curbside frequently and shared with me his problems with neighbors and others. He was intrigued with interesting news developments and also with various non-Christian religious philosophies, so I tried to encourage him to follow the only one true Word and God - Jesus Christ.

“ We will miss your stories Charlie and the kindness that you showed to others. We kept our promise to you and all your dogs & cats are well cared for & safe. You told me that Happy was a great dog and that I just needed to sit with him and get to know him, and to give him sometime. To see what you see. You were right he is a wonderful dog. We will miss you and the valley.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Charlie's passing. I have many memories of him from when we were teens, and over the years. I'll miss looking for him, riding his bike.

“ Charlie was an interesting man. He could carry a conversation on nearly any subject. He always had stories to tell about his dogs or his day. He would always stop for a word when he saw me. I am so used to seeing him and his bicycle around town that it's hard not to look for him still. He will be missed by many; some who knew him and some who just saw him regularly but never got to know him. Rest in peace, Charlie. For now you truly are a free spirit.

I, too, have fond memories of Charlie when we were teens...back when times were easier for him, and then again when we visited together in our 30's. Charlie was such a sweet person who truly cared about everyone. God will now take our friend on the rest of his journey.
