“ I'm so sorry to hear of Chuck's passing. He and my dad (Larry Wiedmeyer) started in the Saline Police reserves roughly the same time. I have met Chuck a few times over the years, but he and my dad were good friends. I hope you find peace in your memories of Chuck. He was truly a great person. R.I.P. up there with my dad, Chuck. Prayers to your family, from the Wiedmeyer family.

“ My fondest memory of my Step-Dad. I was about 9, and it was Christmas Eve, and I heard some noise coming from the basement. I crept down the stairs to see what was there making the noise. It was Chuck rapping all kinds of presents in newspaper and red ribbons, it looked so magical. Chuck had recieved a bonus that year and spent it all on us. He seen me and said "What are you doing up, dont say nothing to your Mom". Christmas was extra special that year. RIP!
