Preceded in death by siblings Jack (Elizabeth) Fitzpatrick, Elizabeth (John) Swift, Thomas (Marilyn) Fitzpatrick and Joanie (Joseph) Sommers. In addition to raising seven children she was very active in her church and communities. Char loved to sew. She was always increasing her education and skills by taking classes at the local community college or attending workshops. Char even played with the idea of becoming a real estate agent and also helped out tax firms during tax season. She was always volunteering at schools and would read to children and was a girl scout leader. She also volunteered at nursing homes. She loved to dance. She was a member of the 40 diners dance club and even took belly dancing and Cha Cha lessons. She loved the theatre and playing bridge. She took Judo lessons and loved gardening. Char loved her faith and admired Our Mother Mary. Always health conscientious which led to a long fulfilled life and is most likely why she had always wanted to donate her body to science.

“ So many sweet memories of dear Aunt Charlotte. I loved how close she was to my own mom throughout their lives, and their shared stories from when they were teenagers. She was brave enough to have my whole family with 13 children to her house each summer when we lived in Michigan, which allowed us to get to know and love our Carroll cousins. Throughout the years, visits with her were full of fun stories, updates on her cherished family, discussions on the issues of the day, and she was a great encourager.

My heart and prayers are with you all as you mourn and plan her memorial service.

“ I remember well the many extended family gatherings hosted by the Carroll family at Tim and Gigis'. They were fun in and of themselves, but also provided the opportunity to connect with Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins. My Aunt Charlotte (your mom) was my Godmother. That was never lost on the two of us when we'd see each other. It warranted an extra hug or kiss on the cheek. We no longer have extended family gatherings, and I miss that. Nevertheless, wonderful memories of your mom and dad and all of you nurtures the love of family now in our time of grief, and forever.

*God bless you all,
