A Poem for Grammie – From Her Grandchildren

Grammie,

Not a place, but a home.

Daytime Gameshows.

Every Christmas made special.

Stockings made with care.

Candy Canes all over, what flavor?

Traveling to Kentucky.

'Gone With the Wind' and Twizzler Pull 'N' Peel.

A little KFC too.

'66 Candy Apple Red Ford Mustang.

Dolly and Elvis.

The best place to be.

Hangout in the "Big Bathroom"

Watch you curl your hair every morning.

Always a trip to the salon,
I'll see Pam soon.
Natural and tatted beauty.

She loved purple, but her toes were always 'OPI Ruby Red.'

Dress-up and spoil us.
Always taking care of us.

I got braces and you cut the corn off the cob.
I'm your baby.

Born young, made great.
Coal Miner's Daughter did it ALL.
She was silently great.

Ahead of her time.

“ When I was a little girl One of my most memorable memories was wanting to be as pretty as she was. I remember her coming in with her white skates over her shoulder one day and thinking how pretty she was. Then I so enjoyed she, Jim and Stacie visiting Roy and I and staying with us in Nashville and the trips they made to Jeff and Dolly’s weddings and my parents funerals!! It meant so much to have them come!! I Love You Cuz and hope you are so enjoying your new home and seeing out family that is there!!❤️Debbie
