Cheryl Ann Schlaff passed away on January 29, 2024 at her home in Saline. Cheryl was born in Ann Arbor on March 11, 1946. She was the first child of Dan and Janet Collins. She graduated from Saline High School in 1964 and attended Eastern Michigan University. Cheryl married Ray Schlaff in 1966 and they had three children.

She was also a lifetime member of the United Methodist Church and worked as an Office Assistant at the Saline church for 12 years. In addition, she was active in many areas of the church over the years working with the day care center and on various committees.

Cheryl loved traveling, gardening, scrapbooking, music, and art. She spent many hours throughout her life enjoying her hobbies.

Cheryl was preceded in death by her parents, husband Ray of 46 years, son

Raymond, fiancé Fred Rhine, and half-brother Duncan Furbush. She is survived by her daughters Diane Cuff, Janice Shank, grandchild Skyler Shank, brother Dan and Barb Furbush, and half-brother Ike and Martha Furbush.

“ Cheryl was an avid participant at Saline Area Senior Center where she took watercolor and acrylic classes, ukulele, and participated in social clubs, trips, and special events. She was also a pen pal to an elementary student and during the pandemic she participated in zoom programs. I would see Cheryl up there at least three times a week. I always enjoyed chatting with her and will miss hearing her laugh. Peace and love to her on her next journey. I will miss seeing her.
