“ So many memories, I wouldn't know where to begin. A best friend a wonderful babysitter to my son Austin Kitchen. Many inseparable years together. One of my great memories is the letters we used to exchange in the halls between classes. We had some of our own silly language, "lylas" was my favorite! It meant (love you like a sister). RIP my dear sweet friend. You will be truly missed! LYLAS —

“ We lost another cousin. Connie Sue now Rests In Peace among the angels. Too young to leave us. My Thoughts & prayers go to our family, especially her Mother, Sisters, children & family. Especially on this Easteer our hearts were heavy. She no longer knows pain, suffering, sadness, illness. Rest In Peace with the angels.
