“ I was so sorry to read of Darlene's death in the paper. I will miss her smile and friendly greeting in the many exercises classes we attended together.

“ Darlene was a classmate and friend. I hoped to see her at recent class reunions but she wasn't there. I did call and leave a message but we never got a chance to reconnect. My memories of her was that she was very kind and sweet. I bet she was a loving and caring wife and mother. During the difficult days now and ahead hope your treasured memories of her will help bring you comfort and peace.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Darlene's passing. I saw her at Meijer a few weeks ago after her first chemo. We had such a lovely chat. Mom, Elaine Carter passed on the 9th. They will be together in no more pain. God bless you all.
