“ Aunt Donna it’s me Sierra. I truly understand the meaning of let your loved ones know how much you love them because you’ll never know when it’s their time to go— yeah that’s eating me up now... it has been since I found out I can never message or call you to tell you I love you. I procrastinate. I’m terrible at that. Kids, work, life... I let that distract me. I hope you know that I truly love you with all my heart. My chunky and aunt Donna. I just can’t grasp the thought of y’all being apart. As far as memories go— your hugs are what I’ll remember forever. Even though you have been so far for so long those hugs will always have an imprint in my memories and heart. They’re welcoming they’re warm and they were long. Long hugs to let me know just how much you cared for me. The best kind. ☐ and until it’s my turn to go I’ll keep the memory until I can meet you at the pearly gates to get another one. I just know Nanny was there waiting for you. She loved you so so much. While we’re talking memories though 🐼 PANDAS! I always think of you when I see any panda things lol ☐☐ you’re the pandas and he’s the white tigers lol Ughhh Aunt Donna I just really am so uncomfortable writing a memory for your obituary... I don’t think it’s clicked for me yet. I just want to rewind and call you all the times I should have and tell you I love you. I’m going to do better though for Chunky... :(I love you so so so much and I will miss you dearly. Love always - your brat niece Sierra ❤️❤️❤️ oh! ☐ you always asked how the babies were when I talked to you so I’ll attach a photo of the tiny humans for you. 😊 I love you -Sierra 😊🐼🐼🐼🐼🐼🐼🐼

Sierra, my Mama, loved you with all her heart! I couldn't agree more with what you said. Don't take any time for granted. Love often, Love hard, but most importantly, just LOVE. Our time here is short, so make sure the people you love know it daily!
