“ My dear, lovely friend Dorice. How I will miss her. We were colleagues at the U of M Hospital for years. Our friendship continued until the very end. We shared so much. Supported each other in good times and not so good times. What a blessing to have had her in my life.

My very best to Marsha and all others surviving her.

“ Dorice was a true and beloved friend of our family. I always looked forward to our lunches when I came to Saline to visit my mom and dad (Jean and Joe Ferris). Chinese food, tea sandwiches, German cuisine, rice pudding - you name it, we ate it! I will miss her wonderful stories and playing ball with sweet Kippy. Most of all, I will treasure her support when mom was in the hospital and when dad passed away this past March. She was a lovely, lovely person.

I am very sorry for Dorice's passing. As the church secretary at Dorice's church, I had the honor to speak with her many times over the past few years and to serve her in any way I could. She was always a joy to talk with and amazed me by how much she continued to do for herself. She will truly be missed. - Lisa Jarema, Secretary, Marble Memorial UMC, Milan
