“ Mike and Duane,
Our prayers are with you as you mourn the loss of your mom. She and my mom were friends almost their whole lives. She was so kind to mom, especially in the last few years of her life by visiting her often at EVH. Such a blessing.

“ Dorothy was a hard working member of the Saline High Food Service staff.
Many good memories from working with her.
My sympathy to her family and friends.

“ Dorothy and her husband Alton were close family friends since about 1965 when our family moved to Wheeler Ct.
My memory of her was of a quiet but warm person who was insistent on taking her daily walk which she credited for her general overall good health.
My thoughts are with her family.
