

Dylan Robert Williams

March 7, 2012 - May 13, 2026

It is with broken hearts and unimaginable sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved son, Dylan Robert Williams, on Wednesday, May 13, 2026. Dylan was born on March 7, 2012, to Jamie and Robert Williams. He is survived by his three sisters, Brionna, Maya, and Makayla; his grandparents; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who loved him beyond measure.

From the moment Dylan was born, he filled our lives with happiness, laughter, and love. As the youngest of four children, with three older sisters who adored him, Dylan brought joy and energy wherever he went. He loved music, having fun, and being silly. Dylan played in the Saline Orchestra, Jazz Band, and School of Rock bands, and he had recently started his own band with friends. He had a special passion for electric guitar and drums, but he could pick up almost any instrument and play it with ease.

Dylan was talented in many other ways as well. He loved skateboarding and had recently discovered a new passion for track and field. Above all, Dylan had a quiet light about him that made people feel welcome, valued, and loved.

Dylan was loved beyond measure.

Please keep our family in your thoughts and prayers as we face the unimaginable loss of our beautiful son, gone far too soon.

Friends may join the family for a time of gathering at the Robison-BahnMiller Funeral Home in Saline on Wednesday, May 20th from 3:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. “ We have so many memories of Dylan, we cannot even count. It's taken me this long to write because I've been processing and trying to find the right words. All the sleepovers, the birthday parties, the skatepark, and the music in our basement. Our family misses him dearly. Gio misses him beyond words. He will always keep Dylan close in his heart. Robert, Jamie, Brionna, Maya, and Makayla-- our deepest condolences and we are so sorry for this unfathomable loss.

“ Jamie and Robert were the best parents to Dylan. They supported every hobby he wanted to do with enthusiasm and praise. I still remember talking with Jamie after they bought him his first drum set. I think she quickly realized that drums are very loud and the set needed to go in the basement! But they let him play as loud and as much as he wanted to. They pursued every way he could expand his talents and were always looking for opportunities for him to use his gifts and passions. Jamie and Robert were always there to cheer him on in everything he did. Dylan was so loved.

“ My favorite memories of Dylan are the endless silly dances and moves he would do as a young child. He always had the cutest little smile and laugh that would make everyone around him smile. Love you so much, Dyl.
