“ Phyllis, Michele, Jim and family - I was so sad to learn of Ed's death. My thoughts and prayers go out to you. What wonderful memories I have of the times that George and I spent with all of you. We were blessed to have him as a friend and he sure knew how to throw a football party. They were a highlight of each season - even for us University of Michigan fans. God Bless.

“ Ed unselfishly served the community in service, friendship and helping us all to spread green beauty across the landscape. His smile and cordial manner to all - the youngest and oldest, the rich and the poor earned him affection for a lifetime. He never met a stranger. Barb and Bill Lavery
