

Elizabeth G. Valentine

February 20, 1933 - August 10, 2014

Elizabeth “Betty” G. Valentine, age 81, passed away on Sunday, August 10, 2014. She was surrounded by her loving family. She was born on February 20, 1933, in Philadelphia, PA, to the late Frank and Maude (Fry) Goff. On September 5, 1953, in Philadelphia, PA, she married Alfred “Al” O. Valentine, of White Plains, NY. They were happily married for almost sixty-one years. Betty and Al spent a good portion of their retired years at their lake home, in Alpena, MI, where they enjoyed hosting numerous family get-togethers, salmon fishing on Lake Huron, cooking, and “deering.” She was a loving mother and grandmother. She adored her grandchildren and attended many of their sporting events. She was an accomplished cross-stitcher and was well known in the community for knitting thousands of afghan squares. She also loved her Tigers and Pistons. However, above all else, Betty will be remembered for her warm heart and her love for all. In addition to her husband, she is survived by their children Jan (Jamie) Roak and Mark (Ann), Jeff (Debbie), and Glenn (Marie) Valentine. Other survivors include her grandchildren Kate (Jason) Osbourn, Elizabeth (Richy) Kerry, Kevin Roak, and Grace, Eric, Andrew, Stacey, and Brian Valentine. She was preceded in death by one brother and two sisters, as well as by her beloved dog, Mandy. Visitation will be held on Tuesday, August 19, 2014, from 5 pm-8 pm, at the First Presbyterian Church located at 143 E. Michigan Ave., Saline, MI. Her Memorial Service at the church will be held on Wednesday, August 20, 2014, at 11am, with Rev. Jennifer Clark officiating. (Additional parking is available at “ Glenn, my condolences to you and your family. The loss of my mother is still fresh after 9 months. So my advice is to accept the waves of grief that may seem to overwhelm you, and realize these waves will gradually become more of an opportunity to remember and smile about the time you did have together, and not to grieve over the loss.
