“ Earl and Ellen were dad's neighbors at StoryPoint. In the last weeks of dad's life both Earl & Ellen would drop by and spend time with dad almost every night.

Like Earl and Ellen, my mom and dad enjoyed motor coaches and also traveled around the country in them. I think that is why the three of them became such great friends at StoryPoint.

I will always be grateful for Ellen. She came to dad's room the last days of his life, and sat with me just to keep me company at 1am. Both her and Earl were there when dad passed. God Bless you Ellen, and Godspeed. I'm happy you are with Earl again.

*Sincerely,
SKIII*

My dad was so happy to find out that Earl and Ellen were at StoryPoint when my dad moved into Assisted Living there. Ellen and Earl used to be his neighbors a long time ago on Mark Hannah Ct.

Earl and Ellen resumed their friendship with dad when they would come to visit him in his room at StoryPoint. Ellen crocheted a lap robe for dad to use in November when he went on a Flag City Honor Flight to Washington DC for veterans. Dad treasures this wonderful gift.

We all are keeping your family in our prayers.
