“ I have been associated with the Hawkins family for many, many years. The whole family has always been very good friends of mine. Evelyn and her husband and daughter were members of the Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church. Rhonda and I graduated from high school together and remain good friends to this day. Mr. Hawkins was my Sunday school teacher and he was a great teacher and a good sport since our class loved to play pranks at his expense. Mrs. Hawkins was always at church and we found ourselves sitting next to each other at church on many occasions. She always had a smile on her face and we had many spirited conversations. I was at the Hawkin's home many times visiting her daughter, Rhonda, and so I had many interactions with everyone. I will miss Evelyn but I have many fond memories to reflect on...
