JEFFREY B OVERMIRE - January 21, 2021 at 04:41 PM

“ It was a shock today when I learned about Fred's sudden passing. Fred and I were in the same reception (antenna) group at GM for 2.5 years where his presence always had an assurance of humor to brighten up the occasion. Fred was a great engineer and a mentor to the budding engineers. Some RF tests we are still trying to figure out today were first pioneered by Fred. That shows his experience and expertise in the subject matter. There is a HP 6GHz variable attenuator that he bought from his own money from the Dayton Ham Convention trip which we still use today. Fred also had a passion about distilling which I had the lucky opportunity to experience for a couple of times. They were delicious!

You will be greatly missed, Fred...R.I.P.

“ I can't remember when you weren't in my life. From Kindergarten on you were a good friend. We may not have kept close contact, but when we got together it seemed the last time I saw you was yesterday. We were devilish little boys. Many great memories. Hey, do you want to meet at Bear Creek for a smoke

Will miss you. Love ya

“ Fred is a beautiful man. The frustrations of working in large corporate settings never dulled his enthusiasm or love of his work. He was a constant joy to work with and he made every day I worked with him brighter. Lovely guy.
Cheryl and the rest of his family: wish I could be with you but I have relocated to VA. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ So sorry to hear of Fred's untimely passing. Fred and I met while attending classes at U of M. Subsequently we wound up working at Watkins-Johnson Co. in Maryland and designed / developed radios for the Defense Department. He was responsible for the RF front end and I was responsible for the digital user interface part of it. To this day I fondly remember our spirited technical discussions while at work as well as during our commute together from Fredrick MD, to Gaithersburg. MD. We also spent many evenings socializing and spending time together with our families..
May the Lord bless Fred and comfort everyone in his family during this time of grief. Please accept our sincerest condolences.

“ I had worked with Fred at GM for almost 8 years as his supervisor yet he was way too superior in his career than me. He was the only person in GM that I indulged in long technical conversations and discussions. He was a man of character and knowledge; no hidden agendas, spoke his mind all the time. I resorted to his opinions and advice numerous times on technical and non-technical issues. I do remember his passion of going to flea market on every Saturday. My condolences to his beloved ones: his children and Cheryl. He will be dearly missed.

“ Fred and I were housemates when we went to Michigan. He would help me with my Calculus problems. Frequently I told people, “he’s the smartest man I know”.

Over the years our families enjoyed many happy times together. Canoeing down the Huron river and watching Michigan football on TV were just some of the activities our families shared.

Fred was a dear loyal friend of mine who enriched my life with his presence.

I will miss him.

“ I didn’t know Fred as well as I wish I would have! The moment I met him I liked him, partly because I saw how much he loved my beloved sister in law Cheryl. I only wish I could have spent more time with the both of them, but distance kept that from our realities! As much as I did know him, I really liked him! He was kind, humble, and a true Gentleman! It is my loss that I did not get to know him better, and them better as a couple. I know he meant the world and more to Cheryl and she is hurting greatly in his absence. My Love and prayers go out to Cheryl and Fred’s Family, and we are all so very sorry for the loss of this wonderful man! God bless him and may your memories keep him alive in our hearts! ❤️🙏

“ I only knew Fred for a short time when he and Cheryl attended Bible studies and coffee get togethers at Tim Hortons, but he left a lasting memory of a kind, humble man. He had an infectious smile and a deep love for Cheryl. His hunger for learning God’s words contributed so much to our class. He will be missed.

“ Cheryl, we were so saddened to learn of Fred's passing. He added so much to our Weds. morning Bible studies, and most recently to our study of "The Chosen" on Tuesday evenings. Fred approached all of our studies with such enthusiasm, and both Gordy and I are grateful to have known him. We will always remember how much fun that we had with you guys and Julie and Mike at the "White Christmas Sing-Along." We will also treasure the memories from our coffee meet-ups at Tim Horton's after our Bible studies. We will truly miss Fred.

“ We didn't have nearly enough time to get to know Fred but our times at his house and his hospitality was so warm. The light in his eyes when he looked into Cheryl's eyes showed how much they loved each other. A good guy that has left us too soon. There are angels among us and now one more has been added.

Helping with the move to Maryland and then to Saline. And I can't forget the Nova! Don't know how old it was when it finally went to the junkyard but Fred had it in high school and it was still around in Saline! Thank you Fred for the memories. May you rest in peace.*
