“ I was Dr. Eisemann’s dental hygienist on and off for 20 years. He was such a dear, sweet man to work for and a wonderful dentist. He loved his profession and did beautiful work. His patients loved him. I remember him telling the story of meeting his wife for the first time and how smitten he was right from the start. As I cleaned his father’s teeth I learned about Ann Arbor history. Such fond memories. He will be missed. -Sharon Laing
