What a huge loss. I new Gerry all my life. What I loved about Gerry was his honesty as he saw it and to me that was the core of his great humor. He could laugh at himself and make you do the same.

I was always at ease with Gerry. When ever we ran into each other it was like no time had passed since our last visit and we would pick it up where we had left it even if 5 years had passed. One of the best people I have ever known. His passing will affect many people unseen. I am one of them.

. "Family isn't always blood. Its the people in your life who take you into there lives and accept you for who you are"

The Feemans where always that and much more. Red- Irene- Gerry- Ronnie- Dennie. The funny farm was like a second home. The welcome mat was always out.

He is missed.

“ I always enjoyed going up to Gerry's Tire for a few weeks each summer and working there cleaning up, busting tires and all kinds of odds and ends. He employed us just to employ us, all we really ended up doing was moving stuff around for a while. I like to think he just liked having us around. He laughed at me a lot, he got my jokes, only a few people really do.

Heading up to the lake for Fourth of July and the fireworks fights that ensued was as kids now would say- epic. Gerry loved to get the biggest explosive he could find on shore and fire it at us while we were out on the water....it wasn't the explosion that amused him it was watching Andy, Gibby, Rod, Me, Shawn and whoever else was there have to bail from the pontoon boat into the water. He was all smiles and we loved it too.

He was a great entrepreneurial role model for me to look up to when I was a kid, some of his advice stays with me now as I run my own company. As I have aged, he also became a good friend to me when we saw each other, however infrequent.

To this day, whenever I hear a Johnny Cash I can't help but to think of Gerry. He will always be the man in black in my memory.

He lived life on his terms and I always had a deep admiration for that. I will miss him and I deeply wish all of the Feeman family the best during this difficult time and look forward to seeing you all again soon.

Warmest Regards,

“ I graduated with Gerry but best remember his kindness to my mother during the years she lived in Saline as a widow after retirement. Mom told me how Gerry was always willing to check out the air pressure in her tires without charge. I appreciated his looking out for my mother. That simple act exemplifies the sort of man he was - kind and thoughtful. He will be missed. Please know my
