“ *You were more than a Father in Law , you were a second Dad and I learned a lot of life lessons from you. Thank you Dad for your love through the years and for your permission to wed the love of my life Mary Ann on July 10th 1993. I will miss playing Chess with you Dad and the conversations and talks and advice you would give while we were playing even when I won . You are one of the wisest men I've ever known Dad and your biblical advice was always correct . We were so blessed to have you in our lives and Kyle and Ashley's lives. We will miss you and we love you Dad.

“ Gerhard and his wife have been wonderful neighbor/friends for over 35 years. Kind caring and always ready to talk about praising the lord for all we have. His heart and warmth of always asking are you ok? Do you need anything? I will miss his smile and wave as I drive by his home and see him out tending his beautiful yard and flowers and his christmas lights he hung every single year...Rest in Peace with Gods love....Bonnie
