“ Betty, I have so many wonderful memories of time spent sharing with you & Gil as neighbors as I grew up at Pleasant Lake. The friendship you shared with my parents & I was so very special! The Christmas letters each year have kept you both in my prayers. How wonderful to have shared your lives together for Gil to reach 96 years old! Moose passed last year so I know being alone will be a challenge. I am so happy that you will have family for support. I send my love & prayers for you especially now & in the future.

“ Betty and Family, Our deepest sympathy goes out to you all. Gilbert was a very quiet man, that is until you said good morning and he would come right back to you with that little greeting that made you smile. He was a special guy and I know you all know that. We will all miss him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Love, Ron & Joann Finkbeiner

“ Gilbert was not only my dad’s cousin but one of his best friends. I’ll never forget his ready smile and sharp wit every time we saw him, either at church each Sunday or when invited to the lake for a welcome swim. My sincerest condolences to Betty and the family - Dale Herter, Seattle
