“ Grace was a dear friend to our family since we moved across the road in 1961. Mom and Dad thought the world of her, as did the three of us Ferris kids. The day that Mom passed and we came home to an empty house, Grace was the first person to come over: she sat down, looked us in the eye, and said, "You did good," referencing our care of Mom in the year since Dad had died. That meant everything to us. That's who Grace was. Sending prayers of comfort and strength--and many hugs--to Gus, Kathie, and Larry, and their families. Much love, Joe, Cindy, and Noreen
