“ Rest in peace and the arms of our Lord, Aunt Hazel. Although we did not see each other much after I moved to New York, you were an influence on my life. Always dressed so beautifully; I loved your clothes and especially those high heels you always wore. I so wanted to be dressed as well as you; therefore, I always felt you were one of the reasons I went into the fashion world. John and I also remember that you and Liz did come to visit us in New York, and you still wore those gorgeous shoes as we took you to see the sights. John loves to tell that story. So you see, Aunt Hazel, you were always present in my life. Bless you, Liz; what a gift that you could be there with your mother. We pray for your continued strength. The Hoovers are/were a strong family; I am proud to be a part of that heritage. The entire Hoover family, past and present, are in my thoughts and prayers. Blessings to us all, especially Aunt Hazel at this time. Love, Ruth Gazzola and family

“ May you rest in peace my dear Aunt Hazel. You made it to 100 yrs and still a beauty and a grand lady. So thankful your dear Liz was with you to the end and it seems you had a very peaceful death. We are all thankful. I will never forget the trip Aunt Mary & I took with Hazel several yrs. ago to AZ. We had a good time and it was fun to share since I hadn't spent much time with Hazel through the yrs. We wanted to take Mary down to see her new great grandson, Jackson. Liz, you are in my thoughts & prayers for sure. Love, Martha & family

“ Hazel passed away Sunday March 23, 2014. I was with her at her bedside. She had a brief "rally" this past Thursday and Friday when she was able to sit in the recliner and eat more than she had eaten in several days. Although she was non-verbal at the time, there was some recognition in her eyes and in squeezing my hand. After she had taken her last breath and I felt no pulse I looked at my phone to see the time was 10:25 pm. Coincidentally that was the date of her birthday, October 25. She was in no pain and resting very comfortably thanks to the wonderful care she received at the Evangelical Home.
