“ My condolences to the families of Karen and Gary. I have not had contact with my uncle Jacob in many years but happened to get his e-mail in the past couple of years. Since then I have had the pleasure of exchanging e-mails with him from time to time. I will fondly remember him.

“ Jacob was a dearly loved resident at American House Carpenter. He was always joking around with everyone, dining room staff said that Jacob would ask for coffee for the ladies. He enjoyed watching over the workers in the building, he would let us know if they were doing a good job...because he was an inspector in Detroit and he knew how things should be done...lol! He gave us all great memories at American House, and we will smile thinking of his wonderful face. He told me getting old wasn't easy.
