“ I worked closely with Jacque during her service as director of ceremonial and presidential events at the University of Michigan. She was a consummate professional, fulfilling a challenging role with grace, class, and a ready smile and sense of humor. I have thought of her often since she stepped down from that role and was so very sorry to learn of her passing.

Sincerely,

Nancy Asin

“ Doug, your beloved Jacque was the most elegant, classy woman we have ever met. We are honored that she considered us friends...she and I shared so many wonderful conversations over the jewelry counter and Mark will always remember his dance with her at the Pringles. She fought with courage and conviction that awful disease and fully earned the rest to which she has transitioned. She will be missed by so many. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
