“ I know Jackie from living in Bridgewater and met her through Judy Morton. While we did not talk often, any time we did, she was a gracious beautiful woman. The first time I met her was with her daughter, Laurel, at a Mother's Tea event. I enjoyed both of them so much and always looked forward to talking with them. I remember she would bring my trash can from the curb to my garage when there were days I had forgotten or not feeling well. Such a wonderful woman that I am sad she has passed on. I do know she is in a better place living a glorious and painfree life.

“ She was Aunt Jackie to me and my siblings. She was always with a smile. She was quick to laugh and it was an infectious laugh at that. And my Dad, the late Al Weston, could make her laugh like no other. I'm sad to hear she has passed. May her light shine beyond her presence.

“ Jackie became my second sister in 1962 when she married my brother, Dave. It was incredibly sad that they did not have more years together. She always remained part of our family as she had a very special relationship with Dave's parents. We loved her dearly.
