

James D. Parsons

January 10, 1964 - November 29, 2022

James made his transition on the morning of Tuesday, November 29, 2022, at home with Family and Friends close at hand. James had been in and out of the hospital this entire year with symptoms of long-term Covid-19 affecting him greatly.

James was the youngest of four siblings, a confirmed Bachelor his entire life. He's survived by his father Roy F. Parsons of Shelby, NC, brother and sister-in-law Roy and Linda Parsons of Saline, MI, brother Mark "deceased" and Carol Parsons of Traverse City, and Carolyn and Jeff Gerardi of Fenton, MI. He was also very proud of his extended family, with many, nieces and nephews making his life, fun and interactive. Harmony and Dave Hoekzema, Holly and Luke Maue, Christina Gerardi, Mike Parsons, Rachel Gerardi, and Eric and Rebeca Parsons. Also surviving are his aunt Bev Champagne of Milford, MI, and uncle Nick Puscas of Ann Arbor, MI. In addition to his brother, James was preceded in death by his mother Sally (Puscas) Parsons.

James was a unique Man with many enduring traits. His greatest perhaps was to share his love and desire to be heard. He understood the power of Love. He also believed everyone has a voice that must be heard. You may have heard him say the following "I'm a Christian, who loves family, music, and my home."

“ I got to know James at church in Traverse City many years ago. A truly gentle, kind soul who was genuinely interested in people.
Sincere condolences to the family.

Thank you, James loved his Church in Traverse City and wore a yellow jacket with it's name on it often. He actually asked me for it a few days ago. Thank you all for caring for him so deeply

“ I remember a field trip to Bo-Lo as kids, where we help chaperone. The ride and dancing were awesome! However, James did not like the Tilt-ta-whirl too much. Just ask my brother Len :) I am so grateful, after MANY years, our families re-connected. I loved taking James to the thrift stores when we had our outings and miss our long talks. But mostly loved to see him have fun at the Arc Dances. The man had style and moves!
Our brother didn't have a disability, rather an ability to Love unconditionally and accept all people. (for the most part;) He will be missed here on earth but will remain forever in our hearts.
