“ Jimmy is every bit as much remembered as anyone who's lived in Saline. He was never far from his transportation. Many years ago, I was at one of the gas stations when Jimmy rode up and parked next to a pump. "Fillin' her up, Jimmy?" asked the station owner. "Yup," said Jimmy. He went through the motions then rode off. To me, Jimmy always appeared comfortable in his own skin. That is a gift many do not have. He has been missed. I hope he is continuing to ride wherever he is. God bless you, Jimmy.

“ I'll look always remember Jimmy riding his bike through town, fighting crime as "The Green Hornet". He was a friendly and interesting person. While I am saddened by his passing I'll always carry a fond childhood memory of Jimmy.

“ Most all of us who grew up in Saline share the same childhood memory of Jim riding his bike all around town. He may not have stopped to talk much but always had a smile as he went by.

“ As a child, I was a little intimidated by the “older boy” who roamed the town on his bicycle. One thing that impressed me was that he always took time to engage in conversation, even if most of the times it was relatively brief. As I aged, I had a better understanding of his situation and now as I near the end of my 60's, I realize that Jim was like Saline's version of Peter Pan...a never aging individual, young at heart, flying the streets on his two wheeler. I'm saddened to learn of his passing but celebrating his memory!

“ Dear Beverly and Carol, I want to send my condolences on the death of Jimmy. I lived across the street from your parents on Lewis St. My parents were Chuck and Gerry Uphaus. (Mom passed 3 years ago). I remember Jimmy often and how much he loved riding his bike. Warmly, Terrie Uphaus Eroh
