“ My husband Tom and I were able to get to know Jim during a 50th Anaheim High School reunion weekend for Carol and myself, Oct. 2015. We really enjoyed our trip to Disneyland with both of them and learned Jim and I had "sitting out roller coaster rides" in common, while my husband and Carol went off on wild rides! While waiting for them to come back, Jim and I visited. I found him to be a very gentle soul that was a good listener. He struck me as enjoying the simple things in life and was a good observer of his surroundings. He took things in stride and didn't have a "pity party" for himself while maneuvering around on his scooter in an overly crowded park, and while having difficulty getting on and off of some rides...he was a real trooper! Jim was a kind man, and I am happy my dear friend Carol was able to have him as her husband since 2000. My prayers are with Carol, Annette, Kyra and Jeff. They were all blessed to have Jim a part of their lives, and I know they will miss their "gentle giant" with all of their hearts.
